JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), a final determination of the victim's losses will be ordered at a deferred restitution hearing after such information becomes available. An amended judgment will be entered after such determination.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that she is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The Court has entered a money judgment of forfeiture against the defendant, which is hereby incorporated by reference into this judgment and is final.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Linda Jeanette Martin, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Information to a home detention program for a period of 6 months, which may include electronic monitoring, GPS, Alcohol Monitoring Unit or automated identification systems and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment. The defendant shall pay the costs of Location Monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as instructed. Following the period of home detention, the defendant is committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 6 months.

3. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving workers' compensation programs or any other business involving the billing of insurance companies or government funded programs for medical services without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. 6. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify specific persons and organizations of specific risks and shall permit the probation officer to confirm the defendant's compliance with such requirement and to make such notifications.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on February 11, 2019. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time to the United States Court House, 411 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California 92701-4516.
